Sunday 12th November 2017

Thirsk Farmers Auction Mart,
Thirsk Rural Business Centre,
Blakey Lane, Thirsk, North Yorkshire
YO7 3AB.

The Calf show has been held at Thirsk Livestock market for a number of years and this year for the third time, Highlands will be attending, so if you are interested in showing your animals, whether you have never shown or you are an old hand, this is the perfect place to start the life of showing for your young stock. All the animals must be under 2 years of age. You will find below the classes, schedule and entry form, please complete the form and return it to the address at the top of the page. The exhibitors can be any age; children (under 16) must be accompanied by an adult.

The NEHCBC stall will also be there, with plenty of ideal gifts for Christmas, we will also be holding a raffle with the proceeds being donated to the Yorkshire Air Ambulance.

Visitors are also welcome, so come along, have a great day, and show your support to the Highlands, the breeders and the exhibitors of the North of England.

We look forward to seeing you

Peter Fletcher
NEHCBC Chairman

- Prize money will be distributed on the day of the show.
- Electricity and water will be available on site
- Straw is not available but shavings are
- Exhibitors should bring their own feed and fodder.

Mentors are aimed at people wanting to learn more about Highlands and/or showing. Mentors will be available on the day to help you unload and pen your animal, prepare your animal for the show and to be asked any Highland related questions you may have. Some frequently asked questions are listed below

- How to approach a beast correctly
- How to halter a beast securely
- How to control the animal in the show ring
- How to comb a beast
- How to give a final wash
- Show ring etiquette
- Final preparations
- Other tips, including feeding and watering

The classes will then commence in which you will be assessed by a judge.

Your Mentor will be available for support throughout and the aim is to create an environment in which you feel comfortable and can learn and ask questions specific to you.

Please complete the form and return before Friday 3RD November 2017 to the above address
