

Highland takes reserve senior native interbreed title at Stars of the Future Calf Show

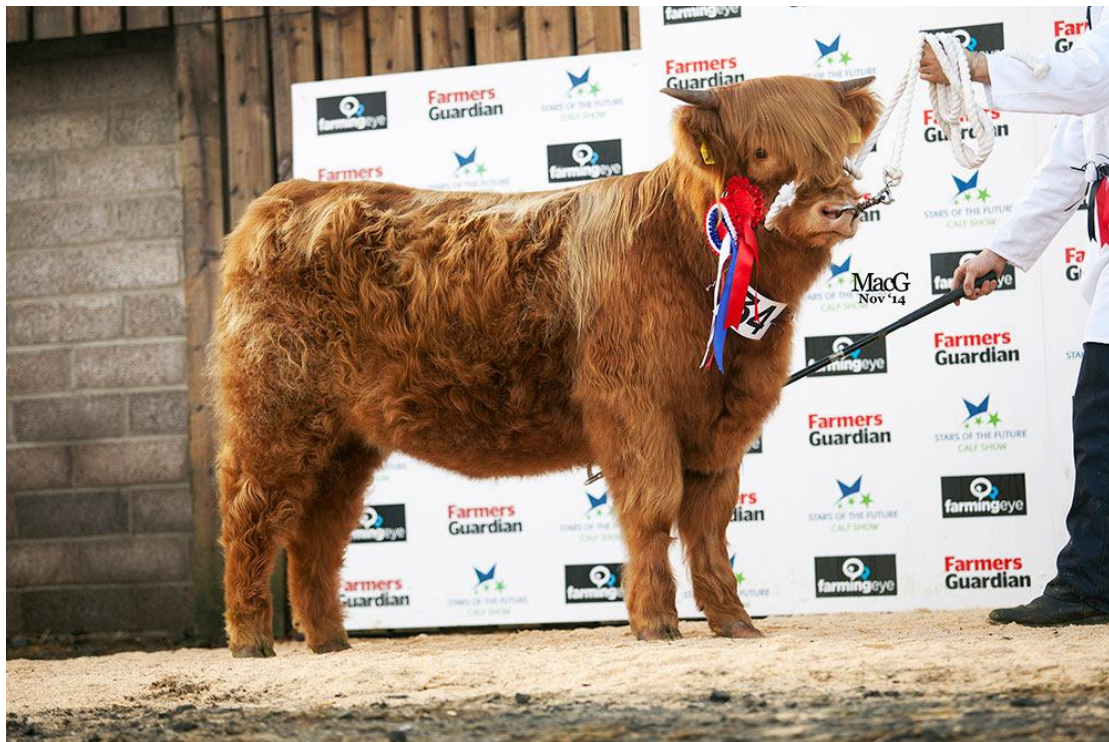

Flying the flag for the Highland entry at this year's Stars of the Future Calf Show, held for the second year running at United Auctions, Stirling, was Frangag Dubh of Cladich from I and M Adams and bred by Mrs JH Strickland, Cladich, Dalmally.

This February 2013-born Seonaigh Mor of Aroura daughter is out of Frangag Donn 10th of Torloisk and stood reserve senior native interbreed champion under judge and freelance stockman Brian Wills. This one was champion at Echt Show and reserve at Tarland and was purchased at Oban last October for 2400gns.

Taking care of the breed classes was Iain MacKay who went with the senior male champion as reserve overall senior, Archig of Barna from Messrs Middleton. This Aonghas of Dams son is out of Boidheach Ruadh of Auchtenny.

Securing the overall junior champion was Dexter Logan's homebred Solas Emma 1st of Blairlogan. This January 2014-born Bono of Buide of Ceannacroic daughter is out of Solas Emma 4th of Benmore.

Following her all the way to reserve was the second prize winner from the same class, another homebred heifer, June 15th of Hyndford from A Prentice. This Alexander of Glengorm daughter is out of June 6th of Hyndford.
